Prosecutor of Franks Case Told Caverly Alone to Decide Fate of Pair

Postal Inspectors May Hunt Down Letter Writers as Law Violators

CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—(Punishment of Nathan F. Leopold, Jr., and Richard A. Loeb for kidnapping and murdering 14-year-old Robert Franks will be determined as a result of the present hearing before Judge John R. Caverly, and the proceedings will not be turned into a trial by jury with a plea of legal insanity, the court ruled today.

Judge Caverly emphatically asserted he was fully within his legal rights in hearing testimony from experts on mental diseases in mitigation of punishment and in positive tones that rang throughout the courtroom said:

"These boys are sane so far as this court is concerned. They have accepted responsibility and the only thing to be determined is their grounds for mitigation. The Illinois Supreme Court has said that it is mandatory for me to hear any evidence in mitigation."

"DECIDED DEFINITELY."

"The court has been called upon three or four times for rulings in this matter and I hope I now have decided it definitely," emphasized the judge.

Dr. William Healy, Boston psychiatrist, was being cross-examined when the highly pertinent ruling was called down. A dissenting opinion was expressed by the witness resulting from the prosecutor's demand for a definition of the word "normal."

In pursuing Mr. Crowe again brought up "insanity" and the defense objected "that we are getting on to ground that we have been keeping off."

"If that is the way this thing is going to be called a jury," Mr. Crowe insisted.

Dr. Healy, who had been on the stand giving direct testimony for five hours, retained his composure under a terrific two-and-a-half hour cross-examination by Mr. Crowe, who tried to break down the value of the expert's conclusions that the Franks murder grew out of a desire to watch close "boyhood" and "abnormal childish compulsion" in which perversion was a tie.

"Fear and caution, the instincts of self-preservation," governed the actions of the boys at times, both in planning the murder and in seeking to evade responsibility for the crime, Mr. Crowe asserted.

VON STEIN'S PEN BRINGS DUEL OFFER

But Prussian General is Ready to Retract Insult to Late King Karl

BERLIN, Aug. 5.—Seven Austrian and Hungarian field marshals and generals today challenged the Prussian War Minister, Gen. von Stein, to a duel, because of an article in the "Berliner Tageblatt" in which he had accused the late King Karl of Austria of being a traitor.

Gen. von Stein, in reply, declared that he was not unrepentant to the charge, and that he was ready to retract his statement.

Gen. von Stein today issued a declaration saying he merely repeated what he had heard and he would withdraw his statements.

GERMANS PROMISE AID IN FULFILLING DAWES PLAN

Berlin Delegates Join Conference in London Expressing Desire to Co-operate in Program

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)

LONDON, Aug. 5.—The inter-allied conference on the Dawes plan today officially changed its name to "international conference" when German representatives headed by Chancellor Marx took places at the foot of the big table in the Ambassadors' room of the Foreign Office. This was the first appearance of German plenipotentiaries at a full dress European conference since that held in Genoa.

Although they sat at the foot of the table with Ramsay MacDonald at the head and the French and American delegates on either side, the Germans participated as full partners in the efforts to work out a program for putting the Dawes plan into operation.

After a formal session this morning, the conference adjourned until the afternoon when the "big seven" will become the "big fourteen" by the inclusion of Chancellor Marx and Foreign Minister Stresemann and an additional delegate from each of the Allied countries. Ambassador Kellogg and James A. Logan, Jr., will represent the United States.

GERMANS TAKE TIME

Mr. MacDonald today had hopes of winding up the conference at the present week-end so that he could join the annual English holiday trip northward but his hopes were dimming this afternoon when it became known that the Germans were delaying the report of the conference experts so slowly that they were not likely to be ready for a plenary session tomorrow.

The American observers expect the conference to last at least a fortnight longer.

Chancellor Marx, Dr. Stresemann and Finance Minister Luther were in conference during all the afternoon and until late tonight with various German experts discussing the protocols and the points they desire to discuss in the altered Dawes plan. At the "big seven" meeting the German delegates feel that they should not be expected to state their attitude in twenty-four hours.

It will not be known before noon tomorrow whether the conference will have a session, and should it meet tomorrow it is thought the Germans will make only a statement in part on their position. Thus Mr. MacDonald's desire that the conference should be completed Friday seems unlikely to be fulfilled, as there is no disposition to hasten the proceedings by unnecessarily hurrying the Germans.

HISTORICAL FILM HOPES ARE DASHED

Constitution, Declaration Removal for Picture With Local Girl Forbidden

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Efforts of a motion-picture company to photograph a Los Angeles girl in a historical film, intended to show the development of American government holding a page of the American Constitution together with the Declaration of Independence have failed. Officials of the Library of Congress, trustees of the documents, have ruled that they cannot be taken from their cases for use in a motion-picture film.

They told representatives of the motion-picture company making the film today they were entitled to see the documents in the Library of Congress, but that the making of the historic film is proceeding today in and about Washington.

The picture of the Constitution and the Declaration were taken yesterday where they rested in their cases in the great hall of the Capitol building, where they are kept for the use of representatives of many patriotic organizations.

DAD IN COURT
When Mother Starts Scuffling Body Still Undecided

to choose between his father, and one said, "I want to go with daddy." Alexander Ross, the father, had to accompany his dad, and they departed, hand in hand.
Ross, the elder, was arrested in Medford on an old charge of being support of two children. His first wife was the complainant, and his second wife, whom he married in recently in Detroit, accompanied him to court.

FATHER WARNED
It was stated in court that Ross had failed to pay for a week of the support of his children, as demanded by the court. He was warned that he must keep up his payments.
Mrs. Ross, the second, saw the fight between her predecessor and her husband, and the police said
she took a hand in it.
It was intimated that the Ross
boy would be returned to his mother
later, as she claims legal custody.

TAN IS ROBBED
on Term for Taking Car and Picking Him Up

DISPATCH
Ten years in State prison—two for the method employed in getting into Glen Sult, a printer from Broadway said that the greater portion consisted in his infamously conduct in holding up and robbing of his money and car. The man who had befriended him. He said that it had become a dangerous practice for any man to take a give a man a ride on the highway.
"For twenty centuries," the judge said, "the Good Samaritan has been held up as a model of men, but now it has become a among the hazardous occupations."
"Oh, I hit him all right,"
as all Sult had to say.

JURY IDEA DEAD
from the mental pathologist. The State's attorney went over the details of the youths' confession, step by step, with each item followed by the question "What delivered the question?" Thus he the crime grew from the immat-admittedly high intelligence, rather than from their immature emotions.

PROSECUTOR IS BALKED
Mr. Crowe tried also unsuccessfully to bring from the man an expert an admission that the best of the intellectual attainments of Loeb and Leopold could have been calves him as to their undeveloped emotions. It having been testified that they were below seven years
in emotional age.
The prosecutor, not satisfied with the judge's ruling on the inadmissible, hammered away at it throughout the cross-examination.
Dr. Healy admitted that "psychosis" is a new medical term for sanity and Mr. Crowe asked "psychosis," "insane" or "hysteria"
did not mean the same, but he out obtaining a satisfactory response. Judge Caverly told new-men, after adjournment, that would turn over to postal authorities some of the 200 to 400 letters regarding the case that he collected daily.
"Anyone who writes a letter to the judge in a situation like this is attempting to influence the court's opinion and therefore in contempt of court," said the judge. "There are Federal laws
State laws covering this point."
Judge Caverly declared many of the letters were threatening, and Loeb and Leopold attempted to guide him by quoting from the more state laws and from the Scriptures.
The hearing promises to continue at least a fortnight longer.
In the opinion of Clarence S. Per-row, chief of defense counsel, "we then I am making a conservative estimate," he said.
The defense will use two or three more alienists. Mr. Darrow indicated, with an underlined suggestion, that he had other witnesses,
whom will probably be members of the families of the two defendants.

ANOTHER ALIENIST
On completion of Dr. Healy's testimony, Dr. Bernard Glueck of New York was called as the third defense alienist, despite the fact that there was left and the attorney
were hinting broadly for an adjournment because of the intense heat. Dr. Glueck got only as far as his qualifications as an expert before adjournment.
Loeb and Leopold retained their smart appearance and did not appear greatly interested as Dr. Healy has been making rapid progress in delineating his impression of the two or three times seemed to have the better of exchanges.
Respectfully with the prosecutor,
Missouri Supreme Court, said Judge Caverly throughout today's session.

NEW ZEPPELIN MAY BEAR MAIL

Cost of Operation is Chief Obstacle to Project

Craft Built in Germany to be Brought Over Soon

Leviathan Much Larger Than Uncle Sam's Shenandoah

BY FREDERICK J. HASKIN
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Uncle Sam may add the giant Zeppelin ZR3 to his air mail service. In fact, if he does not do that, and cannot find some other commercial use to which to put his new Leviathan of the air, he will have a white elephant on his hands. Under the terms of the peace treaty under which Germany has been building the ZR3 for the United States the ship cannot be used for military purposes. She may be used in an experimental service carrying both passengers and mail, or she may be turned over to the Postoffice Department and used entirely for mail. At the office of the Second Assistant Postmaster-General it is stated that no plans have been made for taking the Zeppelin over for the air mail, but it is known that the matter has been under consideration.

COST STANDS IN WAY
One obstacle in the way of adapting the ZR3 to the mail service is the expense of her operation and her original cost of $1,000,000. With a crew of twelve officers and thirty men, with the amount of fuel and oil that her 400-horsepower engines will consume and with the numerous other items of operating cost it virtually would be impossible for the ship to pay expenses at any rate that could be charged for transporting either passengers or first-class mail. She has accommodations for twenty passengers and in addition can carry two and a half tons of mail or freight. Without passengers her capacity is five and a half tons of freight. That would mean more than 175,000 letters of one ounce or less, but the maximum postage revenues would not be impressive.

However, if the commercial use of the great rigid dirigible is to be developed, some money necessarily will be lost or wasted in the course of the experiment. Private individuals or companies are not likely to bear this burden inasmuch as they are not certain of getting their money back even if the experiment should prove successful. Hence it is argued that the government should finance anything that is done in this direction. Aside from the possible commercial importance of the dirigible as a means of transporting passengers and freight its value in time of war is unquestioned and it is regarded as a common sense measure of preparedness for the government to encourage the building and use of the craft.

MEASURE OF STORMS
Another obstacle that must be overcome before the Zeppelin type of airship can be used successfully as a regular carrier of mail or passengers is its unworkability and the difficulty of handling it in rough weather. It will be remembered that the Shenandoah was torn loose from its moorings during a storm some months ago and was threatened with complete disaster. Only the most skillful efforts of the officers and crew saved it, and even then it suffered considerable damage. More recently the Shenandoah was again blown away from a test cruise and, a storm coming up, it was impossible to make a landing with it for several hours. Storms with high winds are ever-present possibilities. Any carrier that is used in economical transportation must be capable of being operated on a regular schedule and as long as gale may make it impossible to land or to take off for an indefinite period the air liner will not be a strictly business proposition.

In building the ZR3 one long step has been taken toward solving this problem. It is asserted that its propellers can be reversed without slowing down its speed long before the landing plane is reached and shifting gears as in handling an automobile. When a dirigible loses its headway it is more easily affected by the wind and maneuvering it to its hangar or mooring must become difficult.

With its reversible motors it is said that the ZR3 can approach the landing place at practically full speed, slow down quickly, reverse and back and descend at practically the exact spot the pilot has determined upon. If the new type motors realize the expectations of the designers and engineers this Zeppelin may mark a new era in the construction and operations of the lighter-than-air vessels.

MOONSHINE TO SWAP FOR GAS

Wyoming Woman Offers Service Station Good Trade

HELENA (Mont.) Aug. 5.—Rural gasoline station attendants are frequently approached these days to trade for gas. Tourists low in funds offer many trades, but the most amusing offer comes in a story brought from Wyoming. While a Helena man was buying gas at a rural station in that State a woman came along in a battered, ramshackle car and offered one gallon of moonshine whiskey for five gallons of gas.

Steele of the United States Navy, and crew are provided along a passage way that extends the entire length of the ship inside the hull. The ZR3 is the largest of the main car carry the engine. Along the inner passage way there are some twenty compartments for mail, freight, baggage, stores, fresh water and spare parts. There are tanks for gasoline; twenty-six tanks for fuel, last, and five for oil. Thirty-three tons of fuel can be carried at a maximum.

Midwest in Grip of Hail, Snow, Heat

Topsy-Turvy Weather is Reported from Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin

CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—Topsy-turvy weather—real snow at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, while the thermometer at Galesburg was climbing to a record for the year of 97 degrees—is described today as the most freakish in the memory of Middle Westerners.
In Kewanee, Ill., a violent hail storm swept the town while East-ern Wisconsin was pulling itself out of the mud created by a terrific rainstorm, in which railroads suffered several dozen washouts. Several cities were in a death and several prostrations from the intense heat today, while in the vicinity of Kenton, O., crops were leveled, cattle killed and barns burned to the ground during a severe electric and rainstorm. Many trees were uprooted, telephone poles bowled over and several dwellings damaged. The loss to the onion crop alone is estimated at $100,000.
Chicago sweltered under a temperature of 90 degrees with a high humidity while in the vicinity of Indianapolis 97 degrees was registered.

BROTHER AND SISTER DIE IN BATHING POND

POOL FORMED BY RECENT IOWA FLOOD IS SITE OF DROWNING

GRINNELL (Iowa.) Aug. 5.—Dorothy and Ray Harris, sister and brother, were drowned in a pond a half-mile from their home at Oak Grove.

They went bathing in the morning and when they did not return in the afternoon their sister's body went to the pond for them. The girl graduated from high school last year and the boy would have been a senior next year. They were the children of E. J. Harris, Oak Grove. He is about six miles south of Grinnell. The pond was formed by the recent heavy rains at the end of a culvert through a railroad right of way.

TOT SAVED FROM DOG BY AIREDALE

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
JOLIET (Ill.) Aug. 5.—Bitten by a pet dog, believed to be mad, Mildred Malcolm, 15-year-old high school pupil, is in a serious condition today and probably owes her life to the interference of another pet, "Toodles," an Airedale, who drove off the dog attacking her. Her condition is favorable, although it cannot be determined whether there is a possibility of hydrophobia developing. The attacking dog was shot by the girl's father, William L. Malcolm, a truck farmer.

According to the girl, "Laddie," a thoroughbred Scotch collie, 6 months old, and a pet of the family, suddenly gave a sharp bark and jumped at her throat. The frightened girl threw up her hands and the animal grabbed the right hand between his teeth. The girl's neck also was scratched. As the girl screamed the other dog, "Toodles," an Airedale, jumped to the mad dog's throat, and bore it to the ground. The collie, escaping around the yard until overpowered and shot by the girl's father.

Explosion Kills Three in Steel Plant, Six Hurt

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
GARY (Ind.) Aug. 5.—Three steel workers were killed and a half dozen were injured at the Illinois Steel plant in a terrific explosion which wrecked the newly repaired No. 5 blast furnace.

Rescuers today recovered the body of Walter R. Nystrom, 35 years of age, foreman who returned from his vacation last night. Other bodies are under tons of twisted steel, firebrick and debris. The accident occurred when gas which had been turned into the furnace ignited.
The blast hurled steel and brick for two blocks. Cost of constructing a blast furnace is estimated at $1,000,000 and No. 5 was demolished.
Rescuers are still at work.

WANTED AMBULANCE

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—John Seathoff, a foreman of 150 West street, caused a such commotion at Greenwich and Chambers streets yesterday trying to induce Patrolman Patrick Kiernan to call an ambulance for him, that the policeman called three other patrolmen instead and the man was arrested. Later magistrate Glazmeyer sent him to jail for two days.

The longshoreman told the policeman that he wanted to be sent to a hospital for an operation. Later he said he had drunk several glasses of whiskey and had such a pain in his stomach that he decided he ought to have an immediate operation.

If the new type motors realize the expectations of the designers and engineers this Zeppelin may mark a new era in the construction and operations of the lighter-than-air vessels.

The ZR3 is both larger and faster than the Shenandoah. Its gas capacity is 2,400,000 cubic feet against 2,115,000 for the American-built ship and its engines have a total of 150 more horsepower. Its maximum speed is seventy-five to eighty miles per hour and its cruising speed is sixty miles, while the Shenandoah has a maximum of sixty miles, and a cruising speed of forty-five miles per hour. The latter requires a crew of nine officers and twenty-two men, while the new ship needs twelve officers and thirty men as a regular crew, although it is said that it can be operated with sixteen men.

With a dead weight of forty-five tons the ZR3 has a total lifting capacity of twice that and it is said that with maximum speed of fuel it can remain in the air four days and a half and cruise approximately 8000 miles. The ZR3, which is the one hundred and sixteenth airship of the type built by the Zeppelin company, practically is complete and will be ready for trial flights as soon as the tests of its engines have been finished, which will be some time this month. By September it is expected that everything will be in readiness for the flight to this country.

GERMANS MAN IT
When the trans-Atlantic flight made the ZR3 will be manned by German crew, says Hugo Eckener, a director of the Zeppelin company, in charge. There will be three Americans aboard, however—Capt. G. W.

84 YEAR OLD MAN MADE YOUNG AGAIN

"Have Found Fountain Of Youth" Says
Oklahomian.

Made young as a man of 30 years virtually, 84-year-old J. L. Howell, well-known rancher of Kaw City, Oklahoma, declares that his amazing rejuvenation was brought about in a few days by an exceedingly simple method.

"I am as young and vigorous as I was at 30," he says, "and am getting in better condition than I ever thought possible. Before I tried this method, I wished I was dead. I was in no hopeless a condition. I was skeptical and had lost faith in everything. Now in a few days, my glands are awakened and I am enjoying a complete rejuvenation and restoration of my youthful vigor." Six months have passed since Mr. Howell made his test, and he is still convinced that the beneficial effects are lasting. He says, "I have found a real fountain of youth."

Speedy Results Reported.

Mr. Howell used the now much talked of korex method—the discovery of a Missouri pharmaceutical chemist, as told in a recent issue of the Kansas City Journal. Many others are announcing delightful effects received in from 24 hours to a few days after its use. Speedy satisfaction has been reported in cases of weakness after the flu, stiff joints, aching muscles, exhausted nerve force, premature old age and low vitality. Enthusiastic users tell of blessed relief even in obstinate cases of years standing, where all other treatments had failed. This method involves no tremendous expense or painful operation. Tablets are used and are taken privately. It contains no drastic drugs and those who have tested it say the effect is a healthful, natural, lasting inspiration.

So many successes have been reported that the American distributors have decided to make the compound available to any person needing it. Those now wishing to try this amazing invigorator will find it on sale by McKay & Monksman, 900 E. Broadway, Los Angeles, and other leading druggists. ARGENTINA HAS HUGE HARVEST

Railways and Ports Taxed by Grain Movement

Economists Predict Great Expansion in Wheat

Corn Exports Far Heavier
Than Preceding Year

(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 5.—Recent weather has been favorable to the Argentine farmer, being generally dry and cool, with showers when most needed. The flow of grain to the ports continues, railways and ports working to capacity and, judging by the charterings, this pace will be kept up for some time to come. The large number of steamers sent to Buenos Aires in ballast at last affected the freight market adversely, and rates have dropped some 10 to 15 per cent in the past few weeks, although they seem to be firm for the moment.

Only the exceptional quantities of grain available for shipment
have prevented a more drastic decrease in rates. The exports of wheat, corn, linseed, oats and barley during May reached the tremendous total of 1,180,000 tons, and for the first five months of the year 4,900,000 tons, or 850 tons more than for the same period of 1923. There were about 1,000,000 tons of grain still available for export at the end of May, 1924. Total exports of the cereals mentioned were 5,155,000 tons for 1923.

Planting is proceeding normally, plowing also has commenced, and it is predicted that the 1924-25
crop will cover an area of 10 to 20 per cent more land than the previous one. Argentina's future as a grain country is bright, and economists predict that this country will witness an extraordinary development of its wheat fields. Wheat shipments decreased in favor of the new corn crop from 730,000 tons in April to 600 in May, which compares closely with the 463,000 tons exported
in May, 1923. Exports of wheat steadily strengthening to a small extent the market during the second half of May, to fall again at the beginning of June, but to have again risen about 1 per cent
above the mid-May level.

It is probable that the future
trend of prices will be downward, owing to the imminent North American harvest and the probable freer offerings by local holders
when planting operations are over,
although recent reports indicate a short crop in the United States.
The amount of wheat available for export on June 1 was about 3,000,000 tons, as against 1,500,000 tons on the same date of 1923.

HUGE CORN EXPORTS

Favored by the dry and cool weather, farmers and exporters were able to ship as much corn
as the railroads and ports could handle. May shipments were 642, 000 tons, which is about 140 per cent greater than the 229,000 tons
in April, or 25,000 tons in May, 1923. Prices, after slight fluctuations, gradually declined and are now about 6 per cent lower. In view of extraordinary yields reported from all parts of the country, it is probable that the government's revised estimate on this year's corn crop will show a marked increase, which might affect prices adversely. However, it is possible that this additional surplus may be absorbed by internal consumption if pasture lands should suffer from dry and cold weather.

On June 1 there were about 4,220,000 tons of maize available
for export, as against 2,400,000 tons on the same date 1923. Linseed prices during May remained fairly steady, increasing early in June to about 24 per cent above
those in May. United States firms have shown more interest, but the European and particularly the English buyers seem to be regulating the market at present. May exports totaled 104,000 tons, as compared with 129,000 in April and 106,000 tons in May, 1923. The surplus available for export on June 1 was about 140,000 tons, as compared with 350,000 tons on that date in 1923.

Kramer is said to be one of the

SPINSTER'S BEQUEST ECCENTRIC

Relatives in Contest for Equitable Distribution of $12,000,000 Inheritance

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
WHITE PLAINS (N. Y.) Aug. 5.—Although Miss Emily A. Watson of White Plains, who died
here last February, left an estate valued at more than $12,000,000,
her personal clothing and furs
were valued at only $200, in a report by the State's transfer tax appraiser. Her jewelry was valued at about $225.

Henry R. Barrett of White Plains
and Frederick C. Close of Tuckahoe, who were appointed temporary administrators of the estate pending a contest over her will brought by consanguinity, paid an inheritance tax of $728,233.81. A certified check for this amount was delivered personally to the State Tax Commission at Albany by State Senator Walter W. Westfall, who is counsel in the administration proceedings.

The total value of the estate was appraised at $12,118,550. Of this the personal estate was $11,781,611 in bonds and stocks, most of which are in safe deposit boxes.

The contest over the will,
which will come to trial before Surrogate Sator and a jury of White Plains next November, was brought by a half a dozen cousins who allege under influence on the part of certain relatives who received bequests ranging from $50,000 to $250,000 while they were cut off without a cent.

Repairs Hole in Man's Skull With Shinbone

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
SPRING LAKE (N. J.) Aug. 5.—
The successful performance of two unusual operations in which a section of a man's shinbone was used to fill a hole in his skull, with the subsequent recovery of his speech, was announced at the Ann May Hospital.

The patient, John Hansen, 45 years of age, of Manassquan, was struck on the head a year ago by a policeman in arresting him for being drunk. A section of Hansen's fracture skull as large as a half-dollar was removed last October, after the injury had caused him to lose his speech. Hansen partly recovered, but Dr. R. H.
Garrison of Red Bank, who performed the operations, decided that pressure on the spot was preventing complete recovery. Last week the section of shinbone and a section of fat tissue from Hansen's abdomen were grafted into the hole.

Hansen's power of speech has been entirely restored, except for a slight lisp, which is expected to pass away within a month.

Foresters, Wardens and Lumbermen

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
PORTLAND (OR.) Aug. 5.—The Weather Bureau is sending fire warning forecasts by telegram each evening to the Forest Service and the lumber industry, in an endeavor to meet the emergencies of the present fire season, according to announcement just issued by District Forester Cecil.

These telegraphic warnings of approaching fire weather will be sent out every evening from the Portland office of the Weather Bureau, in charge of Edward L.
Wells, and from the Seattle office, in charge of M. B. Summers.
They go to all forest supervisors,
State fire wardens, and leading lumber and logging operators in These warnings are said to be valuable in the further study

of relative humidity, and in preparing to meet periods of high fire danger.
Both the lumber industry and the foresters make practical use of the forecasts in formulating their fire plans.

experts in the field in Oregon and Washington installing instruments of relative humidity, and other conditions affecting the start and spread of forest fires. The State and Federal foresters and the

ANDY MOSER LEADING IN WILSHIRE GOLF TOURNAMENT BY ONE STROKE

HOWARD KINSEY AGAIN WINNER

Lewis White of Texas at Southampton
Gives Coast Star Run for His Money

Spring Surprise by Beating Wesbrook

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
SOUTHAMPTON (N. Y.) Aug. 5.—Howard Kinsey of California, winner of William M. Johnston tournament, N. J., last week, defeated Lewis N. White of the University of Texas, 6-4, 7-5, in a bit-ting match, the feature of the play in the invitation tournament here.

Kinsey gave his Coast rival stub-stance from the start, his beautiful, daring tennis, never close to vic-tory, his powerful stroking and his own. Kinsey, however, was not game and the set, the second set, trailing, 2-5, he brought his tantalizing chop into play and, by the very of his aggressiveness, tied the set at 4-4, but Kinsey quickly turned and, by masterful play, completely overpowered the Texan and out in the next two games won set and match.

In the brackets in the third round were filled today. Kinsey had easily gained this round by beating E. M. Edwards of Phila-delphia, 6-3, 4-1, in the second round.

IRAN IS NOW LEADING CANNEFAX

Iran playing great billiards on the front yesterday in three-cushion match with Cochran won both the afternoon and evening tilt. In afternoon he made 61 to Can-nah's 39 with a high run of 147. In the evening he made 56 to Cochran's 37 with a high run of 147. The last block was played at Cochran's Holly-wood parlors.

GIBBONS TO FIGHT ON LABOR DAY

Tom Likely to Clash With Unnamed Opponent at Michigan City

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—Joe Coffey is the authority for the statement that Tom Gibbons will box Labor Day at Michi-gan City if an opponent can be secured for him.

Gibbons will fight Al Bloom-field on the 9th inst. in London and the chances are that he will astonish England with his cleverness and dispatch. Why Carpenter could not hit him once in sixty shots at the head, Eddie Kane, manager for Gibbons, has hinted he would not be averse to taking on Dempsey again at Michigan City. All of which will begin to make people think a match between this pair is more on the order of an exhibition than a real fight.

FRANKIE GENARO IS ADJUDGED WINNER

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—Frankie Genaro of New York, American flyweight champion, went out of his class to win a judges' decision over Irish Johnny Curtin of New Jersey, a bantamweight, in a 12-round bout in Brooklyn tonight. Genaro weighed 112½ and Curtin 113 pounds. It was Genaro's first bantamweight match.

In a 12-round preliminary Mike Ballerino of Bayonne, N. J., won on points over Johnny Leon-ard of Allentown, Pa., repeating his victory of several weeks ago.

LOS ANGELES BALL PLAYERS GO TO TAFT

Wally Knox, Ike Danning and Bud Smith, Los Angeles semi-pro ball players, left yesterday for Taft to begin play with three clubs in the Oil Belt League. Knox has been signed by the Standard, Danning by the C.C.M.O. team and Smith by the Pacific Oilers uniform. Ted Mayer, ex-Manual Arts ball player, leaves today to join the C.C.M.O. nine also.

CORBINA RUNNING AT HUNTINGTON BEACH

Bob Moore, Los Angeles fisherman, returned from Huntington Beach yesterday with a string of twelve corbina. The fish weighed on an average of three pounds apiece. Judging from the way other anglers were hooking 'em, Moore said the fishing must have been good there. Fishing at other southern California beaches and streams remains the same.

ALTHOUGH its high standard of design has resulted in much copying, the rarity of genuine Chippendale furniture has limited its possession to a scattered few. Not so with gas-oil. "Red Crown," the standard of all motor fuels, is available every-where. And every gallon has the same unvarying power and extra mileage!

Pity the Blind at a Scene Like This

OBSERVATIONS BY INNOCENT EXTERMINATOR, BILL HENRY

When the A.A.A. lost Ralph De Palma they lost the most popular racing driver that ever dispensed castor oil fumes and thrills to the sporting public. And when they got him back a day or so ago, they got a driver who had gained in fame during his absence from the fold. So the A.A.A. have something to thank Mr. Bentzel for. De Palma was a consistent winner for the last two or three years. And De Palma's ability to retain his wonderful popularity in the face of one defeat after another is as great a tribute to any man could have.

Ralph is one young man who always made a race of it. If he had the tough luck to go out early in the race through mechanical difficulty and he was able to get his car going again, Ralph always dashed out of the pits and picked a fight with the leader just to keep the race from becoming monotonous. There was never any reason for De Palma's rushing out and battling the leader with nothing to gain, except that Ralph always liked to see the public get a run for their money.

De Palma has been a good sport as a winner and a good sport as a loser. He has been a good influence in the racing game and has done a lot to popularize the pastime. He is as fine a driver as ever lived and can race under any conditions. His sixteen years of racing without set-down or reprimand by the governing body is without precedent. Here's hoping Ralph's good luck from here on and discovers that the first sixteen years of racing are the hardest.

War among the wrestlers. This time among the amateurs. It will be remembered that the Pacific Coast captured two of the world's grappling titles at the Olympic Games, Russell Vis of the L.A.A.C. winning the 145-pound title, while Robin Rees of the Agricultural College and the Multnomah A.C. galloped away with the 185-pound title. Now there's a movement on foot to see the two boys matched. It is a splendid merry way by Milt Frohman, one of the red-hot Multnomah athletes, who writes as follows:

"We have a wrestler here who belongs to the M.A.C. who is also a world's champ and we think he can beat Vis. He did beat him three or four years ago as an A.A.U. tourney in Portland and the Multnomah Club and the town of Portland are willing to go broke betting that he can do it again. It is true that Vis at that time was only a ginner and has improved since even more than Reed has.

"Reed wrestled at 185 pounds at the Olympic Games but it's hard for him to make that weight. His natural weight is 145 pounds. Ted Thye, our wrestling instructor and Reed's coach, says that at 145 pounds, Reed can make Vis look like a piece of dog meat. I'd make a special trip to Los Angeles to see those two boys wrestle. Could it be arranged and wouldn't it be a wonderful match?"

Looks like a swell chance for an argument here. Personally, it doesn't look to us as though there was any guy in the world or, for that matter, any two guys in the world, at 145 pounds who can throw Russell Vis. The L.A.A.C. rooters feel very much the same way about it. A match between two Olympic champions would be certain to draw a huge house. Why not arrange it?

Real matched competition. Incidentally, always draws better than a tournament of any kind. Announce that Bill Tilden and Harvey Hopwood are going to participate in a tennis tournament and if they meet in the finals everybody will have read about them so much for a week previously that they won't rush out to see them actually play. But match the two in a special contest and you can jam grand stands twice as big as those at the L. A. Tennis Club. The same thing goes for a contest such as suggested by Frohman. Match Vis and Reed and you can pack any place where the match could be held.

LEE BARNES WILL GO TO LOCAL COLLEGE
Lee Barnes will positively go to U.S.C. in the fall, according to word brought here Tuesday by several Trojan athletes who were with Barnes at the Olympic games. Barnes has been receiving all kinds of rushing by several big eastern colleges, but states absolutely he will be in a U.S.C. uniform next year.

MERMAIDS TO GO SOUTH

Coach Frank Holborow Will Send Two Protesges to Coast Title Swimfest at Coronado August 17

(BY MADLINE FRETZ)
Because the Pacific Coast has long been rated as the leading section of the country for development of swimming and diving championships, there is no reason why Southern California should rest on its laurels, according to the theory of Coach Frank Holborow of the Holborow Swimming Club. Hence Frank has scurried about and developed two brand new potential champs who will make their first important public bow in the Pacific Coast swimming championships at Coronado on August 17.

Dodie Blewett, sister of Bill Blewett of football fame, is the first of Holborow's proteges. Given up as a failure two years ago, she was taken in hand by the veteran coach and has come up until she now bids fair to be one of the fastest girl swimmers on the Coast.

Frank's other genius is Betty Noble, who has only been in training two months. She is a diver, both springboard and platform. While Miss Noble is yet to reach the supreme form of which she is believed capable, she will be ready to give the best girl divers plenty of competition at Coronado. To develop into a serious championship contender in two months is, to say the least, indicative of innate ability and, according to Holborow, the young lady has promise of speedily attaining the Aileen Rigney-Betty Becker-Caroline Smith class.

Holborow and his youthful proteges are making their initial appearance in the Coast championships and swimming fans will watch with interest the first appearance of the Holborow Swimming Club in competition.

LYNCH OUTPOINTS RIVERS

Joe Gets Unpopular Decision Over Georgie in Main Bout at Jack Doyle's Boxing Pavilion

Before a comparatively poor house at Jack Doyle's boxing emporium last night, Joe Lynch gave an unpopular decision over Georgie Rivers in the feature clash. Rivers had the first two rounds easily, scoring repeatedly with overhand lefts but the blows hadn't much hurt stuff back of them. Lynch landed but few blows in the first two rounds. In the last two sessions however Joe began to reach his man in the clinches with body blows which had little force back of Teddie for the count of nine. What does Levine do but get right up and floor Hood, to the ecstatic delight of the blood hounds. Then the hammer and tongs flew. Hood had his man on the floor twice before the gong sounded. In the third, Levine came back strong but soon got another sock—the time in the cellar and down he went, to a fierce chorus of "foul." The blow was legitimate, however, and Teddie remained to gaze at the zodiac.

MIKE TOO FAST
Mike Solano despite the fact that Jack Griff outweighed him between ten and fifteen pounds defeated his heavier opponent. Jack was taller and had a much longer reach but these advantages availed him nothing. He was simply too slow for live-wire Michael, who kept boring in all through the four rounds. Griff resorted to fighting with Solano beat him at his own game. Mike's fast work won for him the cheers of the gallery gods. His victory was clean cut throughout.

Louis Garcia defeated Georgie Sherman. Very little action in the first round. Sherman appeared to have nothing. In the last three rounds Garcia had

Harry Borde in Second Place With Card of 76; Low-Handicap Man Will Qualify Today

(BY CHARLES WEST)
One hundred ninety of Southern California's choicest golfers participated in the opening day's play of the Wilshire Country Club's invitation tournament yesterday with Andy L. Moser, a member of the entertaining club, leading the parade with a well-played 75. Close to 200 more players are scheduled to qualify today, which will bring the total up near the record of 403, set recently at the California Country Club. Harry Borde of Brentwood was second with a 76, Dr. T. E. Seddon scored 78, and Ed Merritt and H. L. Blake a 79 each.

Today's list of qualifiers includes most of the top-notchers, who will be drawn in three foursomes scheduled to tee off about 1:30 p.m. Willie Hunter, George Von Elm, Harlow Hurley, Everett Seaver, Pim Palmer, A. A. French, Jack Neville, E. S. Armstrong, Norman Macbeth and Jack Tarrant, any one of whom is apt to undermine Moser's score, will provide the gallery golfers with excitement.

Most of yesterday's gallery chases Frank Goldchaux to tag around, but the Flintridge luminary has been up in the high Sierras for the last few weeks and his game is not all that it usually is. His card of 82 indicated that his golf is several notches below his standard.

Borde had a one-stroke advantage over Moser on the first nine, negotiating the way out in 37, while the latter took 38, but a 7 on No. 11 ruined Borde's hopes. He was just past the 2, but played his chop shot to strong and had a trap to contend with. In spite of this bad hole he came in in 39 for a gross of 78.

Moser played consistent golf and aided by a keen eye on the greens, finished four strokes behind par. His card follows:

Green-keeper Greenleaf is deserving of considerable praise for the splendid condition of Wilshire's putting greens, which merited the enthusiastic approval of all who played the course yesterday. While perfectly capable of holding a pitch, they are seen for putting, regarding the accurate player.

Yesterday's crowd played without a hint of congestion, due to no small extent to the expert staging of A. H. Painter, who is managing the tournament. Match play will commence tomorrow. In the event, the finals being scheduled for Sunday.

FINE TROPHIES

Wilshire's tournament committee has selected as handsome a set of trophies as has been offered in any invitation event this season. A commendable feature is that the winners and runners-up in the

Golfers to Play for Spreckels Trophy

Play Tournament Over 200 Entries

Tourney on 16th Inst. on Links of Coronado Country Club

Among some 200 other performers of more or less ability, George Elm and Willie Hunter, both of the Elmer Golf Club, will compete in the Spreckels Cup tournament at the Coronado Country Club this month, and are heavy favorites to top the field in the medal play event.

Elm, who is a member of the national amateur championship, which is to be held at the latter place this month, Hunter has declared himself to be rather over-optimistic in his strenuous preparation, topped by his invasion of the Pacific Northwest, having won an overhand of gold. For his part, Hunter has not entered any recent invitation tournaments, and his appearance at Coronado will be his first in the south since he was defeated in the finals of the Southern California championship by Dr. Paul Hunter.

The Spreckels Cup, donated by J. P. Spreckels, is a silver trophy, the finest trophy ever won by a golfer in competition in this country. It is a handsome silver trophy, the finest trophy ever won by a golfer in competition in this country. WORK FINDS IN MAYA TEMPLES

Results Reported by Carnegie Mission

Work to be Rushed After Rainy Season

Excavations Will Add to Lore of Yucatan

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—Further archaeological treasures recently discovered at Chichen-Itza, in the Mexican State of Yucatan, by the Carnegie Mission, headed by Dr. Sylvanus G. Morley and Earl H. Morley, working in conjunction with the archaeological department of the Mexican government.

These are the outcome of the excavations of the Carnegie Institute, which began several months ago, after the Mexican authorities had agreed to an expedition to Mexico to further explorations on the ancient Maya ruins at Chichen-Itza. The expedition should have been started in the present rainy season, but it was postponed until June, but the work, headed by Adolfo de la Torre, continued until the beginning of the rainy season, and the work will now remain in the hands of the Carnegie Institute.

Under the circumstances mentioned, it was impossible to get under the operations of the mission until early in June, and then six weeks of work were completed. The work will now remain in the hands of the Carnegie Institute, in order to avoid the inclement season in the State of Yucatan, which continues through-

TINNEY FLEES TO LONDON

Wife's Process Servers Hound Comedian to Ship, Where Imogene Wilson Bids Tearful Farewell

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—Frank Tinney, the comedian, got away to London to fill music-hall engagements today with a tearful farewell from Imogene Wilson, but he had a turbulent twelve hours before the North German Lloyd liner Columbus pulled away from the pier.

His wife's agents served papers in a suit for separation based on a charge of desertion; a cameraman whose machine he had smashed served him in a civil suit for damages and, if one was to judge by the loud talk that floated out of the Tinney stateroom, the comedian had some difficulty in persuading the lovely Imogene to go ashore before the ship sailed.

All his troubles left Tinney apparently unperturbed, but silent. "Nothing at all," he snarled at newspaper men as they knocked on the door of his stateroom.

HUNTED TO SHIP

Tinney boarded the ship at midnight last night to evade service of papers that might hold up his sailing. But an agent of Mrs. Tinney's apied him and served the separation papers.

Imogene boarded the ship this morning and remained there until about a minute before the gang-plank was hauled up.

Mrs. Tinney meanwhile was at her home on Long Island discussing her separation suit with reporters.

"I've had all I can stand," she said. "I've tried to be a good fellow, I've tried to be on the level out the later months of each year and makes archaeological exploration work impossible.

STARTING RESULTS

Although the mission's period of active work was short, the results proved startling. Its operations were almost entirely confined to the section of the Temple of the Division of Expense

Both the old and new discoveries at Chichen-Itza are under the care of the Mexican department of anthropology, the arrangement with the Carnegie Institute being that the expenses of exploration are for its account, while those of the conservation and vigilance of the discoveries are for account of the Mexican government.

Earl H. Morley of the American mission was recently in Mexico City on his way north, and conferred with the heads of the Mexican department of anthropology regarding the work of the latter until the mission shall return early in 1925 to continue its work.

Meanwhile the Mexican authorities will begin the work of reconstructing the famous "ball" court, in which the Indians played their national game and of which the Spanish sport "pelota" is the direct descendant.

The work of the Carnegie mission is likely to attract a largely increased number of visitors next year to the State of Yucatan. They will be able to see the most conspicuous building, the prison; the so-called house of the nuns, thus named on account of the many small rooms which resemble convent cells, being a magnificent pile, almost covered with intricate tracery, bas-reliefs and hieroglyphs; the gymnasium, adorned with a sculptured border of serpents, and a series of great stone rings, several feet in diameter and set in the walls. The mural paintings in all parts, representing warriors in battle and events in the lives of the various rulers of Chichen are to be found on any ruins in America. Then, finally, comes the Temple of the Thousand Columns and the recent discoveries of the Carnegie mission. The whole is a feast for the student and a wonderful series of sights for the uninitiated globe trotter.

MEXICO'S GARBANZO CROP GOES TO SPAIN

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

NOGALES (Ariz.), Aug. 5.—A large part of the garbanzo crop of the Mexican West Coast will be shipped from Guaymas direct to Spain on two Spanish freighters due the 15th inst. They will take away 100,000 sacks of the chick peas, with a value of $10,000,000.

On each sack will be collected a Mexican export duty of $1.50. Garbanzo shipments now are passing through Nogales to Mexico and New York, for shipment to Cuba and Porto Rico. The largest consumer in the past has been Spain, against which an embargo was enforced last year.

(BY CABLE.—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

PARIS, Aug. 5.—Thomas L. Woolwine, former District Attorney for Los Angeles, now is improving rapidly in the American Hospital here where his wife also has taken a room to be near him. Since he regained enough strength to be moved from his hotel the Californian has been resting easily and his recovery now is assured within a few weeks.

HIKE NEARLY FATAL

Texas Traveler to New York Near Starvation

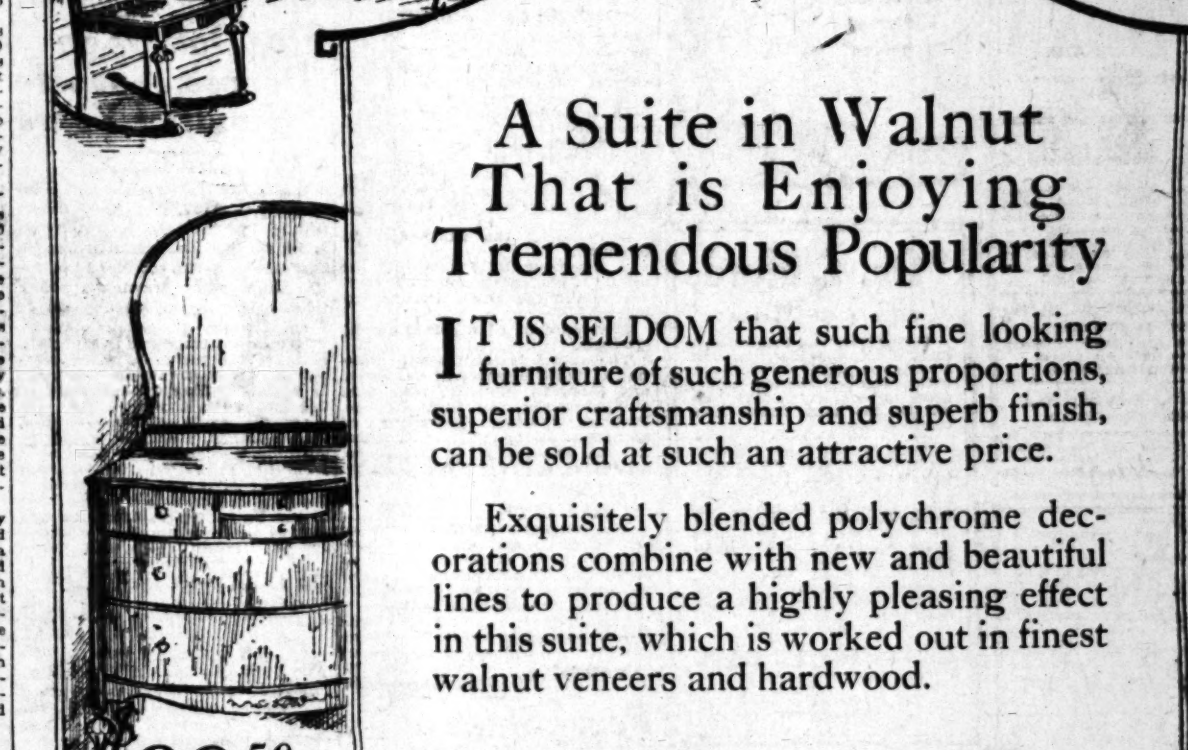

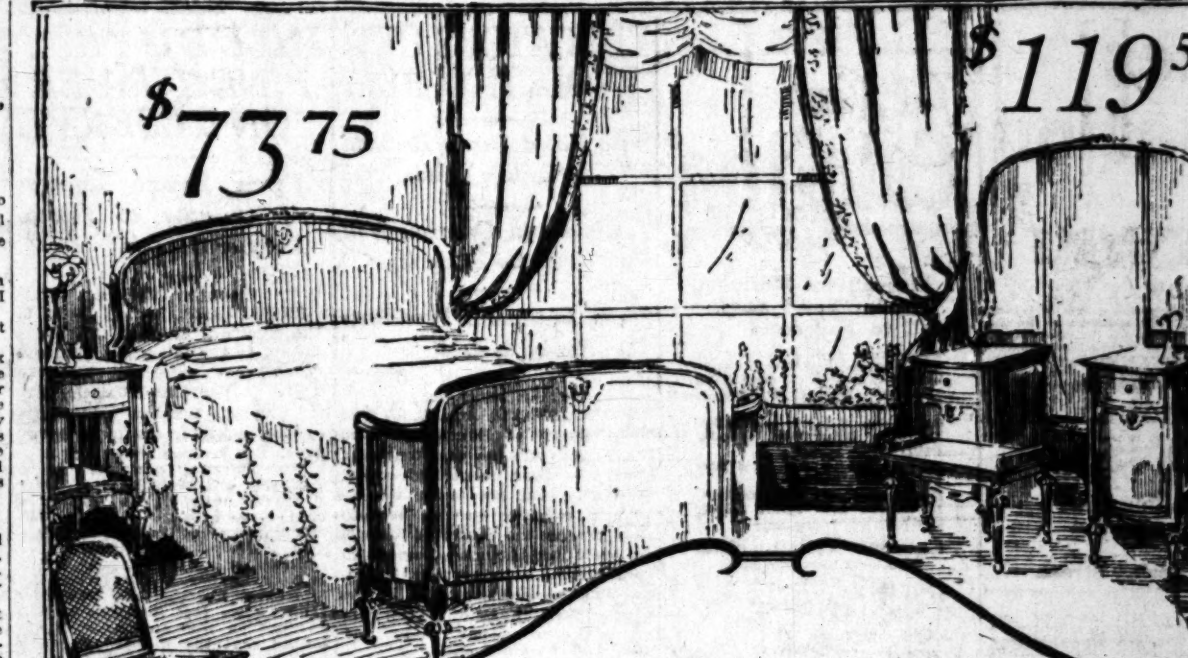

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—Starving and footsore after walking all the way from Texas, Frederick McCrea, 24 years old, collapsed on the sidewalk at Fulton and Church streets yesterday afternoon and was taken to the Broad Street Hospital. After being revived with nourishment and having the blisters on his feet treated, McCrea left to resume his hunt for a job.

He said he had earned money enough for food and lodging on his hike by playing a harmonica.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

BISHOP (Ariz.), Aug. 5.—Explosives are ranging through the 1400-foot level of the Lowell shaft of the Copper Queen, looking for a fire from which smoke has been coming for several days.

PONZI QUILTS PRISON FOR NEW TRIALS

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

PLYMOUTH (Mass.), Aug. 5.—Charles Ponzi, who garnered $10,000,000 from the public with a scheme to make 10 per cent profit for his investors in forty-five days, is to go from the Federal prison here tomorrow to face ten indictments in Boston, each of which charges him with larceny.

Whether or not the wizard of finance remains out of jail depends upon whether or not the man who could get millions in a few weeks can raise $14,000 bail. He says that he can and will.

Ponzi has completed five years, less good behavior time, in the Federal prison. He had twenty-two Boston indictments against him. He was acquitted on twelve of these.

While the ten remain, he will be held in Charles-street jail, Boston, until he can get for August 8, two days after his release from the penitentiary. The Federal courts still have an additional indictment against him for using the mails to defraud.

Ponzi jumped to fame several years ago when he worked out a scheme—perfectly legitimate on its face—by which he bought international postage coupons in foreign countries at the discounted currency rate and had them cashed for value in this country. At the crest of his wave of fortune he bought a mansion instead of a fast yacht.

RESERVE UNIT PLANNED

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

JEROME (Ariz.), Aug. 5.—On September 15, in the capital at Phoenix, will be organized a State department of the Reserve Officers' Association of the United States. The call was issued by Maj. C. H. Rutherford of the Judge Advocate General's Department.

Soviet Soldiers Refuse to Serve on Firing Squad

(BY CABLE.—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

BERLIN, Aug. 5.—Twelve soldiers of the soviet regiment, garrisoned at the town of Elizabethpol, were today taken by the political commissars for the purpose of acting as a firing squad for a political prisoner. The firing squad refused to fire. The members were arrested and sentenced to death by the political commissar who sought other soldiers of the same regiment for a firing squad against their comrades.

As all the soldiers refused this duty and a revolt was imminent, Moscow ordered the regiment disbanded and the ringleaders imprisoned.

COLLAR OF OLD BOOM SHAFT IN COLLAPSE

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

TOMBSTONE (Ariz.), Aug. 5.—The collar of the old boom shaft has given away, and the gullows frame of the big hoist has dropped thirty feet, with breakage of connections with the air and water system. Luckily there was no inclusion of the camp compressor plant, which is set on solid ground near the shaft. For several weeks, since a general caving of the shaft down to below the water level, the hoist has stood intact. It was through this shaft that the main operations of the Tombstone Consolidated Mining Company were conducted by the Frank Murphy interests till the pumps were flooded and the long fight with underground water finally was abandoned.

DEATH OF IOWAN LAID TO SORROW

Grief for Twin Brings Mason City Farming End Within Week

MASON CITY (Iowa), Aug. 5.—A week ago yesterday Paul Ludwig, 37 years of age, died suddenly from heart disease. Last night his twin brother Rufus, unable to bear the burden of life alone, passed after him.

For thirty-seven years the boys had been inseparable. As children they went everywhere together, played together, got into trouble together, worked side by side and shared everything they had. If one was taken sick the other invariably developed the same symptoms.

When they grew up and the care of the farm fell to their hands, they did not divide the work as most men would, but worked side by side in the fields or doing the chores around the home place. According to the neighbors the place was always kept in the best of condition.

Since his brother's death, a week ago, Rufus had been bewildered. He did not seem able to work with usual efficiency. He went to bed last night apparently in good health. During the night his mother heard him call for help and rushed to his side. He died before medical aid could be summoned.

From all indications death was caused by heart disease.

WILKINSON (Ariz.), Aug. 5.—A Mexican ranch hand has been arrested charged with the murder of George Sanford, killed in the Arizona section, northwest of here. The Mexican had been left in charge of the Sanford ranch and is known to have been reprimanded for using horses while the owner was absent in Lordsburg, where his son is in a hospital.

EDUCATORS GET EVOLUTION ROW

State Board Passes Decision to College Heads

Textbooks in Question Will be Up for Analysis

Seven Institution Presidents
Named as Arbiters

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
SACRAMENTO, Aug. 5.—The State Board of Education failed
today to decide the question what should be done about high-school textbooks that are under fire by certain religious groups because they present the theory of biological evolution, but instead agreed to seek further enlightenment by requesting presidents of nine of the highest institutions of learning in California to review books and to report on their effect.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED
The request was made in the form of a resolution in which the presidents of the University of California, Stanford University and seven other institutions in which high school teachers are teaching the theory of evolution are presented in these books and taught in the public schools are responsible for.

Discrediting the Bible and its teachings.
A tendency to develop in the minds of students a spirit of irreverence for the Bible and irreligion.
Development of atheism among students.

The seven institutions in addition to the University of California and Stanford asked to take part in the review are: Mills College, Pepperdine College, University of Southern California, Occidental College, University of Redlands, College of the Pacific and Dominican College.

MAY HEAR EVIDENCE
The committee is authorized by the board to accept in its investigation such evidence as it may desire, and to hear the testimony of opponents or champions of the teachings of the theory of evolution care to submit on briefs.

The action of the board followed a lengthy hearing yesterday afternoon at which arguments
both against and in favor of evolutionary instruction were presented.

MILL BUYS PINE TIMBER ON RESERVE

Forest Service Disposes
of Quantity to Private Lumber Concern

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
SNOWFLAKE (Ariz.) Aug. 5.—
The Standard Lumber mill, operating in the Sitgreaves National Forest have purchased 7,500,000 feet of yellow pine from the forest service. Lumber shipments will be by motor trucks to Snowflake, the nearest rail point.

The operating company is a local one, the main backers being
T. C. Quebebeaux, a Holbrook banker, and John Zalaha, former manager of the mill at Coley, now at Maricopa. It is proposed to contract about $200,000 board feet of lumber a year from the Sitgreaves Forest. No trees less than 10 inches in diameter will be cut. In this manner it is expected that the timber yield can be maintained indefinitely.

Five Dollars on Deposit Almost Hundred Years

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
GARDINER (Mont.) Aug. 5.—On January 1, 1836, Andrew Johnson
put $5 in the Gardiner Savings Bank for his son, the late George N. Johnson. The son lived his entire life without drawing a penny
from or adding to his deposit.
On January 1 last the deposit,
with interest, amounted to $153.98,
a gain of 7000 per cent, or an average of about 50 per cent a year.
It now is rolling up at a rate of $80 per cent a year.

On the death of Mr. Johnson, Josiah Maxey, president of the institution, purchased this bank book
from his heirs for the deposit might be preserved. It is thought doubtful if there is another case
in the United States where an original deposit has not been changed
for eighty-eight and a half years.

she had lost her propeller. The Steamer had been picked up by the

being towed into Eureka.

(BY CAMEL AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)
BERLIN, Aug. 5.—Divorce is steadily on the increase in Germany, according to recent statistics, which show that the number of legal separations granted today is virtually double the number of ten years ago. Infidelity was the cause of 18 per cent of the divorces in Germany last year, the men being to blame in the greater number of cases, according to court records.

charge of a charge of embezzlement
of Mrs. F. C. Wilson, 73, has been held on a charge of embezzlement of the woman's property
in the amount of more than $1200.
The complaint recites that Mr.

the man, who, whom she and her

serted that he was in the yard of

Sun's Rays May be Fuel Source in Future Ages

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—Future generations may use the sun's rays for fuel in two ways, should the coal and oil now available run out, according to William A. Noyes, assistant professor of the department of chemistry, University of Chicago. The rays may be used to charge storage batteries or to build up some compound which may be burned, he said.

The use of mirrors has the disadvantage of being available only on sunny days, Prof. Noyes asserted. He stated that at noon each square inch of the earth's surface receives enough heat from the sun to heat one pound of water

Scientists Have Real Noah's Ark
in Panama Canal

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—A Noah's Ark laboratory in the heart of a six-square-mile jungle has been opened by scientists right in the world's greatest maritime highway. Dr. David Fairchild, chief plant explorer of the Department of Agriculture, has sent his colleagues here to work of the inauguration of this scientists' paradise.
Barro Colorado Island, in Gatun Lake, Panama Canal.

Barro Colorado Island was formed when the valleys about it were flooded by the impounding of the waters of the Chagres River to form Gatun Lake. It resembles Noah's Ark, in that there gathered there a variety of animals and plants of all kinds in the vicinity, seeking escape from the rising flood.

Half a dozen well-known scientists inaugurated the research work this summer.

Sinclair Says
Oil Companies
Losing Money

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—Harry F.
Sinclair, chairman of the Sinclair Consolidated Oil Corporation, in a statement to stockholders today,
asserted that an income statement
of all petroleum operations in America undoubtedly would show
the industry operating at a loss.
"Demagogues are seeking to hold the industry to that level or force
it even lower," he asserted.
Recent omission of the Sinclair common dividend, Mr. Sinclair explained, was due to the desirability of conserving cash during the presented unsettled condition of the industry as a whole.

Resignation of Ambassador Formally Accepted

Told His Mission Has Been
"Gratifying Success"

Successor Likely Not to be from Diplomatic Corps

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—President Coolidge today accepted the formal resignation of Charles E.

Warren as Ambassador to Mexico.

In a statement accompanying his resignation, which was made public at the White House, with the letter of President Coolidge's acceptance, Mr. Warren criticized the Wilson administration's policy

in Mexico and declared American property rights would be protected there under the new relations between the two nations. President Coolidge praised Ambassador

Warren's part in restoring diplomatic relations with Mexico.

"Your mission to Mexico," the President said, "has been attended with the most gratifying success.

You have solved many of the perplexing questions and especially

have provided for the protection of American life and American property, and the settlement of disputed claims."

President Coolidge is expected to name a successor as soon as the necessary exchange of diplomatic formalities in connection with such a procedure can be carried out with Mexico. It is understood the new Ambassador will be chosen from outside of the present diplomatic corps.

FALSE MOVE CITED

Mr. Warren, in his statement, declared the United States' relations with Mexico had been "hurt during the Wilson administration by

"false starts," one at Vera Cruz

and the other by the "fishing expedition." He refused to sanction the policy of watchful waiting while

Your Time, Your Money and Dental Service

NO longer is it necessary for any one to be denied dental service. The E. R. Parker System today fulfills its portion of the obligation imposed upon the Dental profession to make good dentistry available to all. In twenty-six cities of the West, Parker offices have removed the prohibitive cost and the fear of pain from dentistry; have opened the way to better health.

Modern business methods, advanced ideas in the technique of painless dental operations and skilled dentists and nurses with the most modern scientific equipment at their command make this great work possible in the minimum time.

That it is a great work is demonstrated by the fact that more than 150,000 patients last year received the highest type of dental service in Parker offices.

Wherever the Parker Shield is displayed you will find these offices; you will find dental service that provides for thorough, painless treatment which is rendered at the lowest cost consistent with first-class workmanship.

This service is rendered in Los Angeles by three groups of registered dentists and qualified nurses using the

DEFI IS HURLED AT SOCIALISTS

Union Labor Chiefs to Run Own Political Campaign

Federation Council Says it Permits No Interference

(BY A. P. MORTIMER)
ATLANTIC CITY (N. J.) Aug. 5. An appeal to 30,000 unions of the American Federation of Labor was framed today by the executive council of that organization, urging immediate organization of campaign headquarters and personnel, contribution of funds and mobilization of forces in support of Senators La Follette and Wheeler and such State and local campaigns in the fall as the federation may designate.

The council, in annual session here, also adopted a hands-off policy toward the national Defense Day issue, at the same time advising that since such a day had been officially set, labor unions should join in observing it.

Reports of differences between the political committee of the federation and other so-called "La Follette groups" brought from the council a statement intended to clarify its association. The statement was a warning to all other organizations that the American Federation of Labor had assumed leadership in the choice of Congressional candidates for union labor to support and would brook no interference.

HUNGRY WOLVES STORM CHURCH

NAPLES (Italy) Aug. 5.—Villagers of San Vito yesterday had a fight with a pack of furnished wolves on the threshold of the village church where wild animals tried to enter. When one of the villagers clubbed to death one of the animals the remainder of the pack fled.

chance its association. The statement was a warning to all other organizations that the American Federation of Labor had assumed leadership in the choice of Congressional candidates for union labor to support and would brook no interference.

CHALLENGE TO SOCIALISTS

The statement was almost a challenge, concluding with these words:

"We will announce our list of acceptable candidates for the Senate and the House. We are not concerned and will not be guided by what Morris Hillquit of the Socialist party or any other group leaders may do."

"If they run counter to our campaign, that is their responsibility. We will not subordinate our program to that of anyone else."

The executive council authorized Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, to reply to William B. Wilson of Washington, former Secretary of Labor, who was reported to have telegraphed Mr. Gompers in severe criticism of the failure of the executive council to withhold action on the La Follette-Wheeler endorsement until after John W. Davis, the Democratic nominee, had made his speech of acceptance.

TO MEET CALLES

The council received definite assurance today that Gen. Plutarco Elias Calles, President-elect of Mexico, had crossed the Texas border and was speeding here by rail, in the hope for a conference. Gen. Calles, who is a strong personal friend of Mr. Gompers, won the Presidency of his country as a Labor candidate.

He probably will confer with the council on questions within the jurisdiction of the Pan-American Federation of Labor, of which Mr. Gompers is president.

The attitude of the council toward observance of defense day will be one of strict neutrality. Speaking of the council Matthew Woll, vice-president of the American Federation of Labor, and Samuel Gompers, president, said:

"We have denounced both militarism and pacifism. We understand the designs of the militarists, who would take advantage of every opportunity to promote and feed the war spirit."

"We likewise understand the designs of the pacifists who would disarm America first and other nations later. Most of them now prefer to disarm all nations except Soviet Russia, so that the dictators of Moscow may find easier their road to a greater dictatorship."

"We are confident that a great deal of the criticism is insincere, a part of the world-wide organized pacifist propaganda and hostile to American safety."

Defense Day itself is a matter of law and we think most labor men will feel that our military establishments participate properly in the exercises and our military establishment is not large. It is composed of Americans who are just like the rest of us in their love for freedom and their love of their country."

Machinist Sues Ford in Sale of Dodge Holdings

(BY A. P. MORTIMER)
DETROIT, Aug. 5.—Warren W. Ayers, a toolmaker, who charges that he engineered the deal whereby the stock owned by John and Horace Dodge was sold to the Ford interests in 1919 for $26,000,000, filed suit today in the Wayne Circuit Court against the Ford Motor Company for $500,000.

Ayers in his petition asserts that he worked for six months negotiating the sale and then had to return to his trade as a toolmaker in the Ford plant without a commission.

TULARE HOLSTEIN COW CALIFORNIA CHAMPION

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 5.—The new Holstein champion for California is Winifred Hotelling Pontiac, in the herd of W. J. Higdon at Tulare, according to word received here today from the extension service of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America in Chicago. In ten months, an junior 3-year-old, this cow produced 31,283.1 pounds of milk, containing 723.67 pounds of butter fat. Her butter record is third highest in the United States for cows of her age. Winifred succeeds Eva Colantha Hubbale owned by F. L. Hogue of Modesto, as the State champion.

Profit Taking Grows

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—Despite the establishment of several new high records for foreign and United States government obligations today the general trend of bond prices was downward in reflection of increased profit taking. Price movements mainly were limited to fractions, but they were sufficient to carry three Liberty issues and the Treasury 4 1/2's to 1924 high levels, although closing quotations failed to hold at the top. Presentation of the Dawes plan to the German envoys and the buoyancy of the European exchange exerted a favorable effect on foreign bonds, the Australian 7's and French governmentals and municipal issues establishing new 1924 records.

The $25,000,000 Norwegian loan, offered today, was oversubscribed. Investors showed considerable interest in the 6 per cent bonds offered at 97 1/2, and subscription books were closed at noon.

Trading interest in railroad bonds again centered in the Chesapeake and Ohio convertible 7's, which have reflected the progress made in the Nickel Plate merger negotiations. The bonds hovered around 103 today, with one block of $400,000 changing hands.

Because of the current high level of Liberty bonds it was reported today that government sinking-fund operations would suspend indefinitely.

Following are closing quotations on bonds listed on the New York Stock Exchange, furnished by Lewis & Rymer, Inc., South Street, New York:

Because there are business situations which arise for which there is no possible solution, except additional capital, this man now realizes that the only possible way to assure a big and successful future for the company, which has engaged his entire thought and efforts for the past two years, is to secure additional capital immediately.

A few thousand dollars will not be sufficient. A sum is required that will carry through a program to cultivate the national market which only awaits development.

Somewhere in California there is a man with such a sum at his command—a man with vision, with confidence in his own judgment, with a certain amount of faith in another man after he has sized him up from every angle and with a willingness to advance not only his financial exceptional personality — with just enough demand on the investor's time to make this association more recreative than laborious.

Somewhere, among the readers of this unusual message, there is a man who will sense the exceptional nature of this opportunity and the conditions which prompt this appeal. Such a man probably will be a retired business man who would like to add another achievement to his record of accomplishments and at the same time engage his mind to the extent of taking the drag out of life, while affording him a more appreciated plenty of leisure to play.

If a man of this type will indicate his serious interest, arrangements will be made to put him in immediate touch with our client, who will lay before him the entire history of this enterprise with every detail of the plan of reorganization.

Property Quickly After

GLOBE (AP) Aug. 5.—

A novel distribution of community property occurred

here after Justice Hechtman

had dismissed a charge of assault preferred by a woman against her husband, with whom she had just come from Oklahoma. The two walked out to their automobile. The woman took possession of the car. The husband reached in and took an armful of tools and then the two departed, in opposite directions.

WATER STORAGE
ASSESSMENTSPaid in Levies Against Land,
Now $101,800

BAKERSFIELD, Aug. 5.—Collection of assessments levied against land within the Kern

River water storage district paid

up to this time total $101,800, according to the report of County

Treasurer Jerry Shields. The

first call for the assessment

levy $85,900 was collected during the first 30-day period ending

May 27. During the second period ending July 27, $15,900 more was collected, increasing the total to $101,800.

Shortly after the assessment levy

was made known a complaint was filed against the directors of the water storage district by the Farmers' Protective Association. The complaint was framed to test the legality of the assessment.

PAID ASSESSMENTS

Pending the court disposal of the hearing many farmers paid

their assessments under protest

and with checks. The public trustee of the water storage district, Fred Borton, representing the water storage district, filed a demurrer to the complaint and with the court. The court has not yet rendered its decision.

At this time, however, out of a total of $123,000 due, there remains undelivered $21,200. This amount is delinquent and is therefore subject to 7 per cent interest and a 10 per cent penalty

tax.

STATEMENTS ISSUED

Mr. Shields stated that 4200

acres of land had been assessed for the water storage district. Out of this amount 2500 have been paid, leaving a balance of $101,800

due. The County Treasurer stated that of this total the greater portion of the assessments was for one class of assessors.

This assessment levied by the water storage district directors is for the purpose of paying for the preliminary survey to determine the feasibility of establishing a

SHIPPING
and Los Angeles HarborIn ballast to load lumber for Charles Nelson Steamship Company.

This brief was completed by Los Angeles on July 10 and was actually placed before the commission yesterday. It now is considered by the full commission and assigned to one of the divisional groups of the commission to make a study and report back to the full commission. Out-of-Doors Pool in

The staff correspondent
Aug. 5.—One of the most important transactions
in the Canal City for years was the completion of the deal which transfers the old Amusement Company pier
and Electric Pier and Amusement Company to the city of Los Angeles, in a tract of more than twenty acres which extends on the front from the south side of Center street and runs into the ocean. The new pier will be six acres larger than the old one. The new pier company is capitalized at $100,000, of which $25,000 is paid in cash.

Other architects in consultation with foreign amusement experts are engaged in working out plans for the most complete amusement zone in the country.
The director of the project is Malcolm Crowe, president of the National City Bank of Los Angeles. A. E. French, retired banker and vice-president of the bank, is vice-president of the project. A. E.
French, a bank examiner, secretary and treasurer. Other officers are J. H. Gilbert, retired banker and vice-president of the bank, and Theodore F. Fack, secretary and treasurer. The managing director of the project is Walter H. Gilbert, president of the Biltmore Hotel who is also consulting engineer for the government in the Boulder dam project.

WIDER PROMENADE
The consideration for the transfer of the property is said to have been $75,000. This sum includes the purchase of the Sunset avenue, one of the most beautiful of the old ballrooms along the coast.
One of the first acts of the new company will be the widening of the front promenade from fifty feet to seventy-five feet. Permission for the widening has been obtained from the city council.

The feature of the new project
is the largest and most complete out-of-doors swimming pool
in the world. It is to be construced of steel, 400 feet by 300 feet,
and sunk in the level of the pier itself. Included in the tank will be a wave-making device capable of making a wave six feet in height.

STATE HIT IN DORRIS CASE

Mrs. Puddifoot Tells of Hearing Shots Few Seconds
Apart; May Spoil Prosecution Theory

Upon an interval of silence approximately six to eight seconds in length may hang the fate of Charles W. Dorris, on trial on charges of murdering his wife and Henry D. Meyer, according to testimony introduced shortly before 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Theresa Dorris and Meyer were slain by three of four shots fired in the Dorris apartment at Long Beach on the morning of June 30, last. One shot killed Mrs.
Dorris. Two bullet wounds were found in the body of Meyer.
The testimony of Mrs. Puddifoot wealthy Pasadena apartment store owner. A fourth bullet had been fired through the ceiling of the apartment.

THREE SHOTS HEARD
Three of the shots were distinctly heard by Mrs. Mary Puddi-foot, who occupied an adjoining apartment at the time of the tragedy, according to her testimony yesterday. First, she heard a single shot. After a lapse of six or eight seconds of silence she heard two more shots, fired in rapid succession.

TESTIFY AS TO WEAPONS
Harry Boyle, a special officer,
and Detective Sergeant Don W.
McDonald, who were among the first to respond to the police call,
told of their first findings upon arriving at the Dorris apartment.
When they arrived, they testified,
the two weapons were lying beside the body of Meyer in the dressing-room and not in the living-room as testified to by Mrs.
Puddifoot later. The two officers also testified to noticing that the numbers of one of the weapons
had been filed off.

NOTICED TWO GUNS
But during that second she noticed two guns on the floor. They were on the living-room floor beside Mrs. Dorris. The two witnesses had testified that the two weapons were found within a few inches of the hands of Meyer—in the dressing-room. Upon the testimony of Mrs. Puddifoot, Chief Deputy District Attorney Fricke will attempt to show that Dorris removed the guns and placed them beside Dorris before he spread the alarm of the shooting.

CUBAN MARKET CHANCE SHOWN
Commercial Attache Here in Interest of Trade
California Fruits Liked by Natives of Islands Better Ship Service Effort Called First Step

Enjoying at present an exceptional era of prosperity, Cuba today offers one of the leading markets for American-made food products, according to Charles H. Cunningham, commercial attache of the embassy of the United States in Havana.

As commercial attache Mr. Cunningham is the personal representative in Cuba of the United States Department of Commerce, and he is now on the Pacific Coast at the direction of that department to promote trade not only with Cuba, but other islands of the West Indies.

He arrived in Los Angeles yesterday and will make his headquarters at the Chamber of Commerce for the next few days, where he will meet business men who wish to consult him as to trade possibilities in the island.

CONDITIONS IMPROVE
"Economic and financial conditions, which were badly demoralized during the period of depression in Cuba in 1923, are being restored rapidly," said Mr. Cunningham. "The last two years have been unusually prosperous and believe that with another year of normal crops and the price of sugar at 3 cents or more will see Cuban business in a better condition than ever before."

He stated that it is estimated the total production of the island this year will aggregate about $455,000,000, the chief products being sugar, and that the exports will probably amount to $300,000,000, 40 per cent of which goes to the United States. Cuban exports last year exceeded imports by some $100,000,000, the country therefore being one of the few in the world with a favorable trade balance.

"What renders Cuba such an important market for American food products is the fact that while the island's own production is considerable, the bulk of the commodities produced there cannot be used for food, but must be shipped out," said Mr. Cunningham. "Practically no grain is grown there and not enough vegetables to supply the local demand. These goods therefore, have to be shipped in from the United States."

MARKET FOR CITRUS
"Last year Cuba consumed 75,000,000 worth of fruit, the same quantity of cheese and butter, nearly $4,000,000 worth of milk and cream; $12,000,000 worth of lamb and $6,000,000 worth of ham and bacon. The island now stands sixth among the foreign markets of the United States."

"So far as Southern California is concerned, its citrus fruits would find a ready market in Cuba. While Florida is but a short distance from the island, Florida citrus fruits are not so popular with the Cubans as the California variety, despite the difference in cost and greater transportation charges. The native citrus fruits are inferior and are used almost exclusively in the manufacture of soft drinks."

Mr. Cunningham pointed out the need of better transportation facilities between Cuba and the Pacific Coast as one of the requisites for the expansion of trade.

"At present I believe there is only one line that operates regularly between here and Cuba," he said. "This does not provide the facilities necessary for active commercial operation and I hope to see this situation remedied before long."

ARRAIGN "SILK HAT BANDIT"
J. L. Edwards, known as the "silk hat bandit," was arraigned before Justice Russell yesterday, charged with the robbery of H. L. Wilson of $9,400. The preliminary hearing was set for Friday and the case will be heard on the same day in Justice Ballou's court. Edwards will have a hearing on a charge of attempted murder.

COURT FREES ALIEN SAILORS
Federal Judge Rules Foreigners on American Ships Have Status as Though Continuously Here

Alien sailors continuously employed on vessels flying the United States flag must be considered as retaining their rights to be in the United States the same as though they were continuously on American soil, according to a decision of Federal Judge James announced yesterday. The decision was made in habeas corpus proceedings brought on behalf of A. Heribek and E. Kongsvik, Norwegians employed on the Union Oil Tanker La Placencia.

The court ruled against an order of the Department of Labor denying admission to the United States to Heribek and Kongsvik following a round-trip voyage they made from Los Angeles Harbor to Antofagasta, Chile.

RULING IS IMPORTANT
The ruling, which will govern enforcement of that particular provision of the 1924 Immigration Act in the Southern California immigration district, is most important in the eyes of ship owners and seamen's organizations, according to Walter E. Carr, district director of immigration. The two defendants were represented in court yesterday by Attorney H. W. Hutton, a representative of organized interests.

Heribek and Kongsvik, aliens who had been in the United States legally for more than three years, were on service on the La Placencia for the round trip which landed them again at Los Angeles Harbor on July 13 last. They were denied the privilege of resuming their rights as aliens in the United States, and were made subject to exclusion because they did not present on their return an immigration visa obtained from the American Consul in Chile.

NO CHANGE IN STATUS
In releasing the two defendants, Judge James ruled in effect that as long as they were employed for a round-trip on an American vessel they had remained on American soil. Their status on returning from Chile was not the same as it would have been had they departed from the United States for the purpose of visiting abroad, the court held.

Judge James last Friday declined to release Kaare Borg, a Norwegian sailor, on writ of habeas corpus, when it was shown that Borg had deserted from a Norwegian vessel while on service on an American vessel in coastwise trade. In that case it was held the defendant never had been in the United States legally. Borg was included in a party of deportees which left Los Angeles Saturday.

OUTBREAK IN LOCAL HERD IS REPORTED
Warning to Public Given as Foot-and-Mouth Plague Appears at Artesia

A new outbreak of foot-and-mouth disease in Los Angeles county was reported to Sacramento yesterday. The infected herd consists of 178 head of Holsteins on Ocean avenue, south of Artesia. The outbreak appeared Sunday.

At the local offices of the State Quarantine Department it was announced that the new outbreak of the disease should serve as a warning to the public that the foot-and-mouth epidemic has not been eradicated. All persons should continue a strict observance of the quarantine regulations to prevent a general recurrence of the disease, it was stated. The new outbreak is in an already infected area designated as the Hynes district. A fresh outbreak was reported from this district a week ago. The last outbreak is the first reported from any part of the State for several days.

Quarantine officials stated that there is no telling when the epidemic will be cleared up entirely. A number of ranches affected with the disease, on which the cattle were being used for breeding, were stocked after fumigation. To date no recurrence of the disease has occurred on restocked ranches.

Woman Talks Self Into Cell of Venice Jail
By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
VENICE, Aug. 5.—Asserted to have mixed in a family row, Kathleen Hatfield talked her way into the City Jail late last night, when she was requested by Desk Sergeant Bonner to leave quietly and quit disturbing the quietude of the "house of bars." But Kathleen refused to leave.

It happened this way. She appeared at the police station and was told that she must swear to a complaint before the man could be taken into custody. She started out to find Judge Willard to get the complaint sworn to. It was late and the judge could not be found, whereupon Miss Hatfield, a friend of Mrs. Evans, is said to have flayed the desk sergeant severely. She was requested to leave, but refused. A crowd gathered and she continued to talk. She talked from the City Jail pier again. Officer George Davis escorted the woman back to the jail and booked her on a charge of disturbing the peace.

This is the first instance in the history of Venice police annals where a person deliberately talked one's way into jail. Officer Davis stated.

MAN HELD SUSPECTED OF ROBBERY

Found in Mutilated Car With Woman and Boy from Bay City

A man giving the name of Thomas W. Chaburn of San Francisco was arrested last night by Deputy Sheriff Hunter on suspicion of grand larceny. With the man at the time he was taken into custody was a woman and a 13-year-old boy. The woman, according to the arresting officer, stated she is Mrs. George Ober, wife of the manager of a San Francisco hotel and that the boy is her son. The woman and boy were taken to the Sheriff's office and questioned and later released after being instructed to report to the Sheriff's office this morning.

Deputy Sheriff Hunter arrested the man after finding him in possession of a Cadillac coupe on Broadway. The last number on the license plates on both the front and rear of the machine had been bent to render them indistinguishable, the officer said. It was stated that the motor number had been changed. Chaburn was lodged in the County Jail last night pending an investigation by Assistant Chief Criminal Deputy Blapham.

Chaburn and the woman told Deputy Sheriff that they left San Francisco in the car Sunday night. According to advice from the Bay City last night, George Ober, hotel manager, stated his wife and son left San Francisco Saturday with Chaburn, who is a friend of the family, for a trip to Los Angeles. He further declared Chaburn is the representative of a motion picture company, and had been a guest at his hotel for more than a month and possessed an automobile during that time.

BANKER PRAISES
OUR CITY BONDSEastern Declares Southland
Securities in DemandFaith in Industrial Future is Cited as CauseSays Money Plentiful at Low Rates of Interest

Public utilities bonds issued in Los Angeles and other cities of Southern California are preferred to any other security by eastern investors, according to Donald Durant of New York, a member of the firm of Lee, Higginson & Co., one of the leading brokerage and banking houses in the East.

Mr. Durant, now at the Alexandria, is in Los Angeles to look after interests of his company, which has large investments in the city.

"We find no difficulty in selling Los Angeles securities," said Mr. Durant. "Our clients consider them self-evident investments because of what they know in regard to the rapid development of the city. Eastern investors have great faith in the future of this section, being especially impressed with its possibilities along industrial lines."

MONEY PLENTIFUL

Mr. Durant stated that finance in the East at this time is characterized by an abundance of money and low rates of interest. "This is largely due to the lull in industrial activity that has resulted from the caution with which manufacturers are conducting their business prior to the election. While plans for enlarged activities are under consideration, there is but little actual expansion in any line. Business men are content to operate along conservative lines until the political situation is entirely cleared up."

Referring to the recent rise in the prices of various commodities produced in the Middle West, Mr. Durant stated that in his opinion these increases were the result of neither speculation nor political manipulation.

EXPLAINS HIGH PRICES

"I am inclined to believe that these advances in price indicate a general shortage of the commodities affected rather than an attempt at artificial inflation," he said. "And this shortage, I think, has not been brought about so much on account of bad crops as because the reserves have been depleted. So far as I have been able to ascertain, crop conditions in most of the agricultural sections have been fairly good this year."

WEIST CASE HALTED;
BROKER RAID ORDEREDACCUSED DEALER IS HELD;
BOOKS OF ANOTHER
FACE SCRUTINY

A lull in the proceedings against Harry C. Weist for alleged stock operations brought about by the reported illness of the broker yesterday, was offset by the State Corporation Commission before whom Weist was supposed to appear, in ordering the books of another local brokerage house seized.

Deputy Corporation commissioner Prall, who is prosecuting the case against Weist, ordered the seizure of the books of the firm of J. J. Morris in the Commercial

PORT BODY AGREES ON NEW LEASEColden Wins Long Fight
on Thirty-Year Rental to Pan-Pacific Company

A six months' fight by President C. J. Colden of the Harbor Commission against granting the Pan-Pacific Construction Company, a water-front lease on old rates, which would have cut the city out of thousands of dollars in revenue ended yesterday when new terms were adopted satisfactory to all three harbor commissioners.

Last February Commissioners McKee and Kibele voted to grant the company a thirty-year lease on eleven acres of the most valuable water front on West Basin for a term of years at a rate of $100 per acre, which had expired a year ago and had been succeeded by rates approximately 100 per cent higher.

Colden opposed the lease and has been succeeded by rates approximately 100 per cent higher.

Under the arrangement accepted yesterday no lease is granted but a yearly permit is issued revocable at any time. At the same time the area is refused to that actual use which is only a small portion of the eleven acres and the rest reverts to the harbor department. Charge for past rental on ground occupied is agreed to on a basis of 15 per cent of the business of the company's spur track.

As a result a large amount of the valuable acreage is kept free for projected development while all of it can be made so by revoking the permit.

Capt. S. Sandberg, traffic manager, reported that his port pilots had handled 148 vessels bringing the city $11,321.85 in revenue. In July, a healthy increase over June, which showed 139 ships and $11,886.85.

The Union Terminal Warehouse Company informed the board that the city could keep number two just completed would begin receiving cotton in the next thirty days and that it expected to handle approximately 300,000 bales this season including a major portion of San Joaquin Valley's output of 200,000 bales, heretofore going largely to San Francisco.

That the harbor commission's greatest on the Pacific Coast in tonnage handled was indicated by Traffic Manager Sandberg, who reported 36,153,295 tons out of Los Angeles Harbor during the fiscal year ending June 30, a gain of 6,000,000 over the previous year. More than 20,000,000 tons were handled over municipal wharves alone, he said.

Exchange Building for the purpose of setting the records of the company.

The books were turned over to Expert Accountants Keach and Cassidy of the department for a thorough examination and investigation.

Harry C. Weist, according to his attorney, was incapacitated yesterday by an upset, physical condition. The previous day Weist went on the stand as the first witness in his own defense, but only gave brief testimony before the hearing was adjourned for the day. Yesterday's hearing was set over until this morning when counsel assured the commission that the broker would be able to take the stand again.

COLLEGE HEAD HONORED

A dinner in honor of President and Mrs. Farley Paul Womer of Washburn (Kan.) College, was given at the Garden Cafe on the roof of the Broadway Department Store yesterday noon by the alumni and former students of the college now living in Los Angeles and vicinity. Preliminary plans for a Washburn College Alumni Association were made at the dinner and it was decided to make the reunion an annual affair. Dr. and Mrs. Womer will leave Los Angeles today for Portland.

CAPTAIN OF
OLD SAILING
ERA PASSESNihilis J. Rasmussen Was Famed at Port as Pacific
Marine Authority

Death came to Capt. Nihilis J. Rasmussen, one of the best known mariners on the Pacific Coast, yesterday at his home in Los Angeles Harbor.

The death of the picturesque, white-haired old captain and former port captain of Los Angeles Harbor, marks the passing of one of the last of the old mariners who steered their sailing ships into the ports of the seven seas during the last half-century.

Capt. Rasmussen was 66 years of age, and had sailed the seas for nearly fifty years. He is credited with being a foremost authority on the Pacific. It is said of the deceased that he could forecast a squall or storm with amazing accuracy and he is also said to have never lost a ship during his lifetime on the water.

Twenty years ago the captain was master of the famous schooner Golden Gate, a vessel of the old-time seamen of the Pacific remembered with pride. Children of Los Angeles Harbor, however, remember him well and loved him for the never-ending stories of the sea he told them during his declining years.

He is survived by his widow; two sons, James C. Rasmussen and H. J. Rasmussen, and one daughter, Mrs. Mary Johnson. The funeral will be held at the Goodrich Undertaking Parlor in Los Angeles Harbor. Burial will be in Inglewood Cemetery.

Social Week as University Ends
Summer Session

Three hundred and twenty-five school teachers will receive certificates for California school positions at the close of the summer session of the University of Southern California Friday afternoon, which will mark the close of the most successful summer session in the history of the university. Many teachers will return to other States with spacial credentials from the university for advanced work.

While "exams" are proving strenuous this week, many social affairs are being arranged. Thursday afternoon from 1 to 5 o'clock the art department will give an exhibition of summer session students' work and at 4 o'clock on the same afternoon Dr. Lightner Winter of the University of Pennsylvania will speak on "Some Near Relatives of Man." Illustrated with stereoscopic slides.

Thursday evening music students will gather for a picnic supper at 11 o'clock at the Hollywood Bowl and will attend the symphony concert.

Friday morning at 10 o'clock one of the last programs will be given when the Gilmore Brown class in educational drama will present "Two Gentlemen of Verona," for which a charge of 10 cents will be made to cover production cost. It is thought that this is the lowest admission for a Shakespearean drama in Los Angeles.

Youthful Yeggs
Are Found Guilty
on Three Counts

A jury in Judge Collier's court yesterday returned a verdict of guilty against Homer France and Jack Black, two youths charged with safe-cracking and robbery on three counts. The case was prosecuted by Dep. Dist. Atty. Ryan and Ostrom.

On the charge of burglary with explosives the youths were found guilty on two counts and on the robbery charge, one count. On the latter charge they can be sentenced to from five years to life and from one to twenty-five years on the other charge.

Important evidence against France was obtained by the prosecution in a letter written by him to his sweetheart, in which he is said to have made confession of several crimes. The letter vouched a plea to his sweetheart to live an honest life and closed with the warning, "You can't beat the law; they get you in the long run."

Both youths calmly listened to the verdict without comment. They are to be sentenced next Tuesday. One of the crimes they were charged with was the robbery of the jewelry store of A. P. Tarter, Eighth and Spring streets.

THE TALE OF THE LOST SUIT

Owner Says He Bought it from Tailor, Paid for it, Wore it; Got Another, Partly Paid for it; Sent First to Cleaner Where Maker Seized it; Court to Write Sequel

The tale of a lost suit, which is said already to include the story of the suit's deviated journey from maker to owner to cleaners to maker again, may be finished in Police Court if the complaint of T. L. Oden, the suit's owner, accomplishes its purpose.

Oden appeared at the City Prosecutor's office yesterday and told the tale of his lost suit.

"Once upon a time," he began, and then explained that he had purchased a suit of clothing from L. Weisman, a tailor at 311 South Figueroa street. Oden said he paid for the suit and took it home.

SUIT SENT TO CLEANER

In the course of time the suit became soiled, according to the owner of the garments, and he sent it to the A. & Z. Cleaners, 118 Ninth street.

In the meantime, Oden explained, he ordered a second suit from Tailor Weisman and has partially paid for it.

But when he called at the A. & Z. Cleaners for his first suit he was told, he claims, that Weisman already had ordered the suit returned to his place of business.

DEMANDS BALANCE

Desiring his suit, Oden said he promptly visited Tailor Weisman and was promptly informed that he could not get his first suit, clean as it was, without paying the balance due on his second suit.

Whereupon W. F. Morgan, who represents the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association at the prosecutor's office, was advised of this tale of the lost suit and re-

Studebaker Owners Endorse Union Non-detonating Gasoline

How Would You
Make This Gasoline?

WHAT would you do?—If you had at your command plenty of capital, facilities of the most modern kind, a highly experienced staff of able chemists, and had, in addition to these qualifications, a great reputation at stake?

Would you make the best gasoline possible under the circumstances?

We believe, if you were in our place, you would make Union Gasoline—just as Union is made today.

You would believe in it as we believe in it, to the extent that you would select it for your car always.

The better gasolines render better service in any motor.

Union Gasoline has the quality of non-detonation which means less tendency toward "knocking" on hills, and in slow, heavy pulls, quicker acceleration, and a smoother, more vibrationless speed.

You owe the best fuel to the modern motor which is so well constructed today. Don't waste its good qualities in the purchase of an inferior gasoline.

All For Research

The Research and Development Department of the Union Oil Company is an institution in itself.

It watches and guards processes, checks the performance of Union Oil Products, tests and compares fuels and lubricants made by others, devises improvements, and suggests savings by which quality may be raised at no greater expense to consumers.

It is the "Insurance Department" of the Union Oil Company—insuring the leadership of Union Gasoline to the benefit of its users.
